

The Redworth Social and Leisure Club offers recreational opportunities for people suffering from mental or physical disability or recovering from mental illness within a warm and friendly atmosphere.

What do we do?

We organise a lot of different activities - but members only do what they want to do. Our normal club activities include tuck shop, games and jigsaws, pool and monthly skittles, music and film nights.

In addition, each year we normally offer our members the chance to take part in:

- A day trip out
- at least 3 discos organised by the club
- a further 3 discos at Elizabeth House
- the Christmas Party
- Bran Tub with carols
- 2 pub outings
- 3 barbeques
- a trip to a show

We publish a monthly newsletter, sharing news and telling our members what is going to happen. (We specialise in corny jokes.)

Where do we meet?

The Club meets at the Amesbury Activity Centre (which is next to the Sport Centre off Holders Road).

When do we meet?

The Club is open between 6pm and 9.30pm on Mondays and Thursdays.

How do I find out more?

If you know someone who might enjoy the club, ring Vera Westmoreland (the club manager) during club hours or come along to meet us and have a look around. If you like what you see, try the club for a month. If you still like what you see, and the members like what they see, it will cost £3 for a year's subscription.

If you think you might like to help out at the Club, come along and be fawned over.
